Airbrush, Airbrush Kit, Airbrush Megastore

Welcome,

Custom painters and hobbyists vary as do the products they use. The two things that they all have in common is reliability of the products used and a supplier they can trust.

Airbrush Megastore has you covered with over 30yrs of experience, we only sell well known quality products that are proven to work in the environments that you the artists require results in, no cheap knock-offs here peeps.

Just to name a few of the products that have not only stood the test of time but excelled and evolved, tried and tested by artists prior to release on the world custom paint market, many products even developed by the custom painters themselves for a manufacturer.

Airbrush Megastore is a leading Australian importer that takes pride in the products we sell, so let's name some..

*Createx Colors

*Auto-Air Colors

*Wicked Colors

*Autoborne Colors

*Illustration Colors

*Iwata Airbrushes / Compressors / Parts & Accessories

*Artool Stencils

* And Many More…

We have in stock over 7,500.00 various lines and paint sizes to suit everything from the beginner airbrush artist thru to the consul ant professional.

Trust Iwata Airbrushes , now top this off with safe environmentally friendly, water-based, non-toxic paints as listed above that take in all substrates from paper, card stock, canvas, t-shirts, hats ,lycra, jeans, shoes, leather, skate decks, remote control, war hammer, miniatures, models, helmets, surf boards, signage thru to full blown automotive paintjobs and airbrush art.

Yep you want to paint it, we have what you need!

How about generous paint sizes from 60ml, 120ml,240ml,480ml,960ml and most in 3.8ltrs

It’s not just about the right gear even though this is the first step to success, Airbrush Megastore uses Australia Post Track & Trace as our main freighter, couple that up with secure one on one Paypal transactions and you have total piece of mind including credit card transactions.

We can also arrange direct bank facilities to those that wish more personal one on one transactions.

We know that still isn’t enough, we understand that customer demand requires orders to move quickly and to be provided with sufficient tracking, again we have that covered.

We don’t sell you products to ensure budget, we match what you need to your project or your future projection.
So what do you need, we are here waiting to help
